Healing Scripture

Matthew 17:18-20

And Jesus rebuked the demon, and it came out of him; and the child was cured from that very hour. Then the disciples came to Jesus privately and said, "Why could we not cast it out?" So Jesus said to them, "Because of your unbelief; for assuredly, I say to you, if you have faith as a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, 'Move from here to there,' and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.

Joshua 1:9

Have not I commanded thee? Be strong and of a good courage; be not afraid, neither be thou dismayed; for the LORD thy God is with thee wither so ever thou goest.

At this time of the year we honor and celebrate those who have reached a milestone in their life graduating high school or college. We have great joy for those who have persevered and stayed the course finishing their academics. We love success and are thankful when such achievement has been completed, but right away many graduates are bombarded with the question, what are you going to do now? As Christian parents we must instill in our children at a young age that God has a plan for them as written in Jeremiah 29:11. For I know the thoughts that I think toward you, says the LORD, thoughts of peace and not of evil, to give you a future and a hope. Hopefully, a young graduate has been seeking God for years concerning the direction they should go in. Every believer should want God's will and God's way for their life. If not, we will be guided by our emotions and personal interests which at a young age might be totally wrong. Almost every grownup can look back at choices and decisions and say that was not God, that was just what I wanted to do at that point in life. Thankfully, God watches over many of our foolish mistakes and we survive, though often years are lost, money wasted, or even worse some mistakes have everlasting effect on our future. It is important for the body of Christ to pray for the youth in the church from the youngest to those entering adulthood. Unfortunately, Satan has done an outstanding job destroying many youth before they even get started in life. But loving, caring Christians can help mold and shape the youth so that when graduation comes they are not afraid, but strong and of good courage, knowing that God is with them wherever they go.
