1 Kings 11:19

But King Solomon loved many strange women, as well as the daughter of Pharaoh...from the nations of whom the LORD had said to the children of Israel, “You shall not intermarry with them, nor they with you. Surely they will turn away your hearts after their gods.” Solomon clung to these in love.

God blessed King Solomon with great wisdom, riches, and honor. Solomon was brilliant beyond all his peers before or after him, yet Solomon fell because he did not heed the word of the LORD. Many people seek after love, wealth and the pleasures of this world. Solomon had it all, yet was pulled away from serving the living God by the love he felt for women who did not know the true God. As time went by these women corrupted Solomon so that he built high places to worship Chemosh, Molech, Ashoreth, and Malcom, Solomon burned incense and sacrificed unto their gods. We may read this and think oh, as a Christian I would never do that, that is idolatry. But do you have anything that pulls you away from God? Are you intimate with people who are not saved? In 2 Corinthians 6:14 It is written, “Do not be unequally yoked together with unbelievers. For what fellowship has righteousness with lawlessness.” God has not changed concerning who His people should marry. Love can be a powerful motive for marrying someone who is not right for us. Love can blind us to the truth of God’s word, even knowing that the person we want to marry does not love or serve God. Every Christian should go before God and ask His wisdom long before they marry. Why couldn’t Solomon’s wisdom protect him from such evil? Solomon now trusted in his own wisdom because the decisions he had made in life had brought him great success, not recognizing it was God’s wisdom not his own. He was no longer humble but allowed pride to dictate his choices. This was deadly before God and caused the nation of Israel to be torn apart. If each Christian would wait upon the LORD for the right person to marry they would be blessed. Unfortunately, divorce among Christians is the same as unbelievers. Not only does the couple suffer, but it often hurts the children with a divided household. Satan has been able to destroy the unity of the family, causing many children to never know God’s best as they grow up, and finally the church is hurt because of the turmoil going on in Christian lives. Get married to Jesus first, obey the word, and trust God that He will provide you with the right person. God has great things for you but He cannot get them to you if you are making choices based on emotions and your own wisdom. Judy Onofri
